

SMILE WELFARE FOUNDATION

DEEPAVALI CELEBRATIONS

Deepavali was celebrated at Sri Arungariannan Nallathai Education trust at Udumalaipet on 29th October 2024. The trust has a school with 170 deserving students. Smile has supported them to provide new dresses for these children for Deepavali. The trust has provided dresses to the children on behalf of Smile. It is also decided to visit and review Smile's project partnering feasibility with this trust in Udumalaipet area.

CHILDREN HAPPY WITH GIFTS

Punnagai Palam tuition centre children were happy visiting Chennai for Smile's anniversary function in December. Children were busy practising dance, eloquence speech and fancy dress competitions. All the 100 children part of PP centres were gifted with small toys, pencil boxes and candies during the anniversary and also at their tuition classes. These gifts encouraged and motivated these children to study well and to attend PP centres regularly.

KATPADI HOME ALUMNI MEET

Kattpadi – Vellore Government home for girl children had alumni celebrations on 06 October 2024. Old students who are Smile's Sadhana Alumni, with the special effort of Bhuvaneshwari, have arranged for this meet. 70 children are provided with notebooks, set of stationaries and refreshments. Alumni's have cooked and provided delicious briyani to all the children. Through the help of Srinivasan smile trustee member Smile has received 350 diaries and 70 diaries are provided to Kattpadi home children

Great joy and happiness was filled in the hearts and faces of all who assembled in the auditorium on 2nd October 2024 at Spastics society, Chennai. Children came prepared for their cultural performance and the students who received education scholarship were eagerly waiting to see their donors, whereas members and donors were emotionally bonding to meet their friends from their college days. It was a long expected gathering for every individual at the venue.
